SPEAKER INTRODUCTORY INFORMATION

Session: _____

Presentation Title: _____

Speaker's Name: _____
Last First M.I.

Speaker's Title: _____

Speaker's Organization: _____

City/State: _____

Brief Introduction:
Please provide a brief paragraph of achievements, experience, SAF activities and working group membership for your introduction. Example biographical summaries are shown at bottom of the page.

Examples:

LAARMAN, JAN G. Prof. & Coord. of International Programs, Dept. of Forestry, North Carolina State Univ., Raleigh, NC. B.S. Forestry U. of Michigan 1968; M.S. 1969, M.A. 1970, and Ph.D. 1980 U. of California. With NCSU for 14 years, focus on forests in regional development. International research and assignments in Asia, Latin America, Africa, Europe. Active in ISTF. SAF Member 20 years; JOF's Editorial Board for international forestry; former Ch. World Forestry Comm.; former Sec. E5 (IFWG) 1983-84; active in Raleigh Chap.; Technology Assessment & Future Analysis; Economics, Policy & Law, and Forest Production and Utilization Working Groups.

ROSS-DAVIS, A.L. PhD student, Human Dimensions, Department of Forestry and Natural Resources, Purdue University, West Lafayette, Indiana; B.Sc. Biology, University of New Brunswick, Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada; M.Sc., Biology, University of New Brunswick, Saint John, New Brunswick, Canada; member of the Society of American Foresters; member of the Rural Sociological Society; former member of the Canadian Botanical Association; former member of the Biodiversity Working Group, Fundy Model Forest, New Brunswick, Canada.